

Joint Providership Promotional Materials

The following are required for all activity marketing materials:

- TMA identified as the accreditor
 - You may acknowledge other organizations working with you elsewhere in the materials as “hosted by” or “presented by”
 - TMA name and/or logo must be used as recognition of being the joint provider of this activity
- Sources of financial support
 - Use the word “support” when referring to contributions from organizations; do not use the word “sponsor.” Products may not be listed
 - If this information is unavailable at the time the brochure is printed, information must be listed in the conference materials.
- Accreditation and Designation Statements:
 - Substitute institution name and number of credit hours for sections in yellow. Use the appropriate designation AMA wording verbatim (including italics, spacing and superscripts where indicated), whenever reference is made to the provision of credit.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Tennessee Medical Association and <name of nonaccredited provider>. The Tennessee Medical Association is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Tennessee Medical Association designates this <learning format from below> for a maximum of <#> AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

If space allows, please also include:

- Target Audience
- Learning Objectives
- Program faculty and presenters, including institutional affiliations and topics
- Agenda
- Learning formats include live/internet live activity or enduring material/on demand. For a list of other formats, please contact TMA CME staff.
